Sir's, Ma'am:

I am coming forth at this date and time to request a restraining / ~~no contact~~ order pertaining to an individual I was previously engaged in a consensual relationship with for approximately 2 years. The individual of concern is identified as:

HACKNEY, Salome, [REDACTED]

On or about the end of March / 2013<sup>1</sup>, the relationship was severed amicably. Since that time, Ms. Hackney has randomly showed up at my place of work (documented on video), e-mailed my employer, made threats against me, and made continuous calls to my place of business / business cell / and personal cell (verified via phone records). To ensure I answer her unwarranted calls, Ms. Hackney on numerous occasions would mask her number with that of my employer. Ms. Hackney on one occasion waited down from my workplace until I left work for the day. She then followed me in her vehicle playing a dangerous cat and mouse game. While on Rt. 95 / Warwick, she proceeded to pass me, pull in front of me in the high speed lane, and then proceed to jack up her brakes in an attempt to have me strike her vehicle.

Ms. Hackney on numerous occasions has attempted to extort monies from me in amounts of monies ranging from $11,000 to most recently demand that I pay for her college classes at CCRI (verified via recordings). She has randomly showed up at my residence approximately 3 (Three) occasions ranging from early morning, mid afternoon, to late night hours. On one occasion Ms. Hackney was parked outside my home at approximately 1:30 AM while my children were inside my home with my baby sitter. I observed Ms. Hackney's vehicle while pulling up in front of my residence. It should be noted I have 4 (four) small daughters ranging in age 11, 9, 7, and 5.

In addition to the above (3 - three unwarranted visits to my residence), on Sunday June 2nd, at approximately 10AM, I was at a local coffee establishment with my children, approximately 2 miles from my residence. I was unexpectedly approached by Ms. Hackney who advised she just happened to be in the neighborhood. Due to the public venue, and the fact my children were present, I reluctantly engaged her in a conversation that at best was brief and rather bizarre. She subsequently left the area without incident.

On June 20th <sup>2013</sup> at approximately 7:10 am, I again responded to the local coffee establishment (2 miles from my residence). It should be noted I had my 5 year old daughter in the vehicle. While going through the drive-thru, Ms. Hackney entered my vehicle unwarranted, and again demanded I pay her monies. I refused to pay any monies, and continually asked Ms. Hackney to exit my vehicle. That resulted in being assaulted by Ms. Hackney in the parking lot of the establishment ( It should be noted that this incident was witnessed by the establishment employees and patrons, as well as video).

On August 6th <sup>2013</sup> at approximately 7:15 AM, I pulled out of my driveway (leaving my children with the baby sitter) en route to work, and observed Ms. Hackney on foot walking in front of my residence. As I tried to drive around her, she strategically placed herself in front of my vehicle causing me to almost strike her. I reversed, and then attempted to drive around her, at which time she again jumped in front of my vehicle a 2nd time. Again Ms. Hackney's demands were again that I pay for her college courses. This exchange lasted approximately 25 minutes at which time Ms. Hackney allowed me to drive away.

This unpredictable, completely irrational behavior of Ms. Hackney is progressing. It is impeding my ability to focus on my job. It is clearly apparent by the above documented events that Ms. Hackney is completely unstable and unpredictable. As a result, I have great concern for the welfare and safety of my family, and am in fear of my family, or myself being harmed. As such I respectfully request that your Honor grant this order be placed in full effect.
